PROPOSED FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

INSTRUCTIONS

The following recommended disposition has been sent to United States District Judge J. Leon Holmes. Any party may serve and file written objections to this recommendation. Objections should be specific and should include the factual or legal basis for the objection. If the objection is to a factual finding, specifically identify that finding and the evidence that supports your objection. An original and one copy of your objections must be received in the office of the United States District Court Clerk no later than fourteen (14) days from the date of the findings and recommendations. The copy will be furnished to the opposing party. Failure to file timely objections may result in a waiver of the right to appeal questions of fact.

If you are objecting to the recommendation and also desire to submit new, different, or additional evidence, and to have a hearing for this purpose before the District Judge, you must, at the same time that you file your written objections, include the following:

1. Why the record made before the Magistrate Judge is inadequate.
2. Why the evidence proffered at the hearing (if such a hearing is granted) was not offered at the hearing before the Magistrate Judge.

3. The detail of any testimony desired to be introduced at the new hearing in the form of an offer of proof, and a copy, or the original, of any documentary or other non-testimonial evidence desired to be introduced at the new hearing.

From this submission, the District Judge will determine the necessity for an additional evidentiary hearing.

Mail your objections and “Statement of Necessity” to:

DISPOSITION

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Mu’min Abdulaziz/Askew (a/k/a Frank Askew, a/k/a Allen Frank Pennington), filed this pro se civil rights complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, together with a Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915 (Doc. No. 1). Although Plaintiff submitted a declaration that makes the showing required by § 1915(a), his Motion will be denied.

II. SCREENING

The Court is required to screen complaints seeking relief against a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. §1915(a). Additionally, the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA), 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), provides that:

[i]n no event shall a prisoner bring a civil action or appeal a judgment in a civil action or proceeding under this section if the prisoner has, on three (3) or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury.

Plaintiff is a three-striker within the meaning of the PLRA, and has filed at least three lawsuits which were dismissed as frivolous or for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.¹ Although Plaintiff may be permitted to proceed in forma pauperis if he falls under the “imminent danger” exception to the three strikes rule set forth above, this exception does not apply to allegations of past danger, and the alleged harm must be “real and proximate” and occurring at the time the complaint is filed. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g); Lewis v. Sullivan, 279 F.3d 526, 531 (7th Cir. 2002). “[A]n otherwise ineligible prisoner is only eligible to proceed IFP if he is in imminent danger at the time of filing. Allegations that the prisoner has faced imminent danger in the past are insufficient to trigger this exception....” Ashley v. Dilworth, 147 F.3d 715, 717 (8th Cir. 1998) (emphasis in original). In this case, Plaintiff alleges Defendants retaliated against him for providing legal assistance to other inmates, caused him to lose class status, assigned him to a job contrary to his medical restrictions, and conspired to transfer him to another unit for placement in the SATP program, where he was forced to receive “mental health-type psychiatric treatment.” (Doc. No. 2, p. 9.) However, these allegations do not fall within the “imminent danger” exception to the three-strikes provision, and therefore, Plaintiff’s Motion should be denied.

III. CONCLUSION

IT IS, THEREFORE, RECOMMENDED that:

1. Plaintiff’s Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (Doc. No. 1) be DENIED.
2. Should Plaintiff wish to continue this case, he be required to submit the statutory filing fee of $350.00 to the Clerk, noting the above case style and number within ten (10) days of the date of this Order, together with a motion to reopen the case. Upon receipt of the motion and full payment, the case will be reopened.

¹Askew v. Doe, 4:93-cv-00831-BRW, dismissed as frivolous; Askew v. Tucker, 5:93-cv-00522-SWW, dismissed as frivolous; Askew v. Norris, 2:09-cv-00165, dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

3. Plaintiff's Complaint be DISMISSED without prejudice.

IT IS SO RECOMMENDED this 27th day of August, 2012.
